For what it's worth, I would feel better knowing we tried, instead of doing nothing. However I recognize this will do little, if anything, to help.

While I do not believe that anything we send will be incorporated or used to dispel the clear bias, the updated responses are below. Ryan/Nancy, let me know if this is good to send. Nancy, I can copy you on the response, but would encourage you to refrain from replying to him directly with any follow-ups. Thanks – Liz
